

Title	Winemaking
Code	1BT33NAK01M
Prerequisites
Description	An encyclopedic, comprehensive overview of the production tendencies of the wine sector of the world, the modern methods of vinification and wine treatments and the basics of the related chemical, microbiological and quality-management aspects. The study is complemented with laboratory practices, winery visit, and individual project work about famous wine regions.
Lecturer	Dr. Ildikó Magyar, Nyitrai dr Sárdy Diána, Dr. Péter Bodor
Semester	3rd, fall	Contact hours/week	2+1
Level	MSc	ECTS	3
Teaching and Learning Methods:	individual project work
Reading:	Compulsory literature: Jackson, R. (szerk.) (2014): Wine Science. Principles and Applications. London. Academic Press-Elsevier. ISBN 974-0 Teaching aids provided by the lecturer. Recommended literature: -Ribéreau-Gayon, P., Dubourdieu, D., Donéche, B., Lonvaud, A. (2000): Handbook of Enology. Volume 1. The Microbiology of Wine and Vinification. Chichester, Wiley LTD. ISBN 0471973629
Assessment:	exam		